

DEATH OF JUDGE JACKSON

THERE IS ANOTHER VACANCY ON THE SUPREME COURT BENCH.

The Justice had been failing for several years. He did not take to his bed until eight days ago—Son of an Eminent Physician.

Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 8.—Howell Edmunds Jackson, associate justice of the supreme court of the United States, died at 2 p. m. at his residence at West Meade, six miles from this city, aged sixty-three. He had been failing for several years, but it had been only in the last nine months that the progress of the disease began to cause his family and friends uneasiness. Last year he went on a trip to the far west in search of health. Later he went to Thomasville, Ga. The trip did little good and after a time he was brought home.

At his old home Judge Jackson seemed to improve steadily until he went to Washington to sit in the second income tax case. He stood that trip fairly well, but after his return home appeared to lose strength rapidly. He was afflicted with a complication of diseases, which it was impossible to fight off. Nevertheless he did not take to his bed until eight days ago.

After that his family and friends realized that the end was near.

The news of Judge Jackson's death caused general sorrow in this city. The arrangements for the funeral have not been fully completed, but it is known it will take place next Sunday afternoon.

Judge Jackson was the son of an eminent physician of Jackson, Tenn. He was born April 8, 1832. He graduated from the University of Virginia with the highest honors and entered upon the practice of law. He served one term on the supreme bench of Tennessee. He was elected United States senator from this state in 1881 when the fight concerning the state's debt was on. The judge championed the cause of those who were for the payment of the debt. He was appointed to the United States district bench by President Cleveland in April, 1886, and to the supreme bench in January, 1893, by President Harrison.

His nomination for the latter position was confirmed by a republican senate, notwithstanding he was a staunch democrat. Judge Jackson was married twice, his second wife being a daughter of the late General Harding. He leaves seven children.

A PRETTY JUVENILE PLAY.

The Athens a Young Lady of 18—The Cast All Composed of Young People—The Parts Capably Rendered—An Excursion Afterward to the West Shore.

A very interesting juvenile play entitled, "Beth's Mistake," was recently written by Miss Nellie Roberts, a versatile young lady of about eighteen years old, whose parents live on Gilbert avenue. The play betokens a decided talent for playwriting, and was given Wednesday afternoon and evening in a large barn owned by Mr. Kuster, a friend of the family. The barn was fixed up for the occasion with chairs and seats, and the stage was extemporized with scenery, a drop curtain, and other necessary appointments. The stage manager was Mr. Meyers, a friend of the author. The cast of characters was as follows, all those taking part being masters and misses, all of whom were happily selected for their various parts:

Recitation—What She Wanted..... Elizabeth Roberts
Song—Grandma's Advice..... Elizabeth Roberts
Gwendoline Roberts

BETH'S MISTAKE.

Comedy in Two Acts.

Act I.

Characters.

Ora Vinan—A fashionable woman.

Elizabeth Roberts

Little Beth—Ora's sister.

Gwendoline Roberts

Lillian Russell—Beth's playmate.

Nellie Sherman

Bridget Malone—A servant girl.

Ellis King

Arthur Leland—A friend.

Clara Kuster

Patrick O'Hara—Bridget's gentleman.

Ethel Bogert

Song—Only a Dream..... Maud Bogert

Recitation—Higgly Pickety..... Ethel Bogert

Little Beth.

Act II.

Recitation—Down at Cape May..... Gwendoline Roberts

Recitation—The Little Nigger..... Elizabeth Roberts

Violin solo..... Frederick Kuster

Recitation—Grandpa's Spectacles..... Lillian Russell

Lillian Russell

Lillian Roberts displayed remarkable elocutionary talent in her recitation, and in the role of the fashionable lady, Little Miss Gwendoline Roberts as "Little Beth," was good and sang "Down at Cape May" delightfully, acquitting herself splendidly for a child of only ten years. Nellie Sherman showed much tact in her part of "Lillian Russell." Miss Ethel Bogert made an excellent petticoat hero and evinced a fine brogue imported from the occasion. Miss Ella King also had a Hibernian part and did the character of Bridget to perfection. Clara Kuster as Arthur Leland made an excellent dude. A very pretty song, "The Gipsy Cuntess," not on the program, was sung by Miss Ada Hopkins, and the author, Miss Roberts. They were roundly applauded.

A small fee of admission was charged to the entertainment, and as the expenses were paid by friends, the proceeds were very remunerative and were devoted to an excursion to the West Shore, which took place yesterday, all the participants and a number of friends joining in the pleasant sequel to a very pretty performance.

ON THE RAIL FIELD.

Results of the Games in the Big League Yesterday.

At Boston.—The Bostonians played two games here this afternoon with the Brooklyn and won both. Both victories were secured by good stick work. Boston used their old-time batting order and the change worked to advantage. A big crowd was present. The Bostonians' batting was clean and hard. Duffy and Bannan doing finely in both games. In the first Stivett pitched great ball and after the first inning showed great command and effectiveness. He worked like a fiend, batting hard and fielding his position so well that he was tired. He started in to pitch the second game, but retired after the third inning as he did not have much speed. Sullivan succeeded him and his delivery was in such striking contrast that the Brooklyn could not make him out, although toward the close they were batting him. The score:

First game—
Boston.....0 2 1 2 0 0 1 x-6
Brooklyn.....2 0 0 0 0 0 0-2
Hits—Boston 11, Brooklyn 7. Errors—Boston 3, Brooklyn 2. Batteries—Stivett and Gammel; Kennedy and Gammel.

Second game—
Boston.....0 2 3 0 0 5 0 x-10
Brooklyn.....0 0 2 0 0 0 3-5
Hits—Boston 15, Brooklyn 7. Errors—Boston 1, Brooklyn 2. Batteries—Sullivan, Stivett, Gammel and Tenny; Gammel and Con Daly.

At Pittsburg.—Louisville gave Pittsburg a good battle to-day before the former won. The score:

Pittsburg.....1 2 0 0 3 3 0 x-9
Louisville.....0 0 0 2 0 3 1 0-6
Hits—Pittsburg 11, Louisville 11. Errors—Pittsburg 3, Louisville 5. Batteries—Gardner and Merritt; Inks and Warner.

At Cincinnati.—Cincinnati took an easy game from St. Louis this afternoon. Kissinger was hit hard and the visitors were badly off in their fielding. The score:

Cincinnati.....1 0 1 1 1 2 2 x-10
St. Louis.....0 0 0 0 2 0 0-2
Hits—Cincinnati 18, St. Louis 8. Errors—Cincinnati 0, St. Louis 8. Batteries—Rhine and Vaughan; Kissinger and Miller.

At Chicago.—Chicago won to-day's game in the first inning, making six hits off Wallace and scoring five runs. Knell was substituted in the third, and with the exception of the sixth inning pitched good ball. Griffith was hit hard at times and received miserable support. The score:

Chicago.....5 2 0 0 0 4 0 x-11
Cleveland.....0 0 0 3 2 4 0-9
Hits—Chicago 13, Cleveland 12. Errors—Chicago 4, Cleveland 2. Batteries—Griffith and Kittredge; Wallace, Knell and Zimmer.

At New York.—The New Yorks made it three straight with the Washingtons to-day by playing another great game. Rusie was at his best and held the visitors down to three scratches and no runs. He received magnificent support. The New Yorks hit Boyd for fifteen safe drives and earned seven of their eleven runs. The score:

New York.....3 3 2 2 0 1 x-11
Washington.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0
Hits—New York 15, Washington 3. Errors—New York 2, Washington 4. Batteries—Rusie and Farrell; Boyd and Maguire.

At Philadelphia.—The Philadelphia team went to pieces in the sixth inning to-day and Baltimore tallied five runs and won. The score:

Philadelphia.....0 1 0 0 0 0 1 0-2
Baltimore.....1 0 0 0 0 5 0 x-6
Hits—Philadelphia 5, Baltimore 9. Errors—Philadelphia 3, Baltimore 2. Batteries—Taylor and Clements; Esper and Robinson.

George Appo Arraigned.

New York, Aug. 8.—George Appo, the Japanese half-breed, green goods man, and former witness before the senate investigating committee, who was arraigned in Buffalo on Tuesday, was arraigned before Recorder Goff in the general sessions to-day on a charge of assaulting Policeman Michael J. Ryan on April 9. He pleaded not guilty, but said that he had no lawyer to defend him. Recorder Goff remanded him and announced that he would assign counsel later.

Graveyard Cases Ended.

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 8.—The preliminary trial of the notable graveyard insurance cases at Beaufort has ended. All thirteen defendants, except Samuel Williams and Dr. Perkins, are held to the next term of the superior court under a bond of $400. Williams and Perkins are each to give a $200 bond. The last evidence in the cases was very sensational. Mrs. Casey, aged seventy-five, one of the insured, and Mrs. Stewart, widow of Charles Arthur Stewart, revealed a conspiracy to insure the nearly dead husband of the last named. Mrs. Stewart said that she had been promised one-half the amount of the insurance.

Railway Postal Clerks.

The following Connecticut delegates have been chosen to attend the national railway postal clerks' convention to be held at Chicago, September 3: S. R. Keith of Winsted; C. E. Deere of Bridgeport; alternate, Alonzo C. Walton of New Haven.

Injured at Woodmont.

Woodmont, Aug. 8.—Miss Mabel Clark of Terryville, whose parents are summering here, while attempting to get out of a carriage this afternoon fell and broke two small bones in her ankle. She was attended by Dr. Wilson of West Haven.

At Savin Rock To-Night.

A fireworks display and grand illumination will be given at Savin Rock to-night. Next week the imperial Japanese jugglers will appear at Railroad grove. They are a great attraction.

IT WAS A DULL RACING DAY

NO INTEREST TAKEN IN DEFENDER AND JUBILEE CONTEST.

The Attempt to Have An Extra Yachting Week Proved to Be a Failure—It Is Settled That the Defender Readily Outclasses the Jubilee—An Uninteresting Race.

Newport, Aug. 8.—The attempt to have an extra yachting week by the offer of special cups has proved quite a failure, and there is considerable doubt whether or not the money already collected for such an event next year will be donated to the purpose. There were just short of a dozen entries last night for to-day's consolidated events as enforced by Wednesday's heavy weather, but this morning in place of five classes to start there were but two of two boats each, and they furnished no exciting sport, since Defender readily outclasses the Jubilee and the Marguerite is no match for Emerald. So mild was the interest that even the steam yachts which usually go out to all events crowded with guests failed to make any show of themselves outside of the harbor. Even aboard the committee tug there was a total absence of interest.

It was nearly 11:30 when the schooners were ready to start. Emerald was first to cross and after standing on the starboard tack for several minutes laid over on the port and stood in to the Narragansett shore. Marguerite stood much less on the starboard, so that Emerald, by superior outfooting and outpointing, almost on the beginning of the first leg secured so good a windward position as to put the schooner well in the lead.

Of the sloop Jubilee was first to cross by having stood off well to leeward of the lights long after their time to start.

Immediately on crossing Jubilee came about and stood inshore while Defender held to the starboard somewhat longer. The two crafts held on to the port tack until the Narragansett shore was close under their lee. Defender had well out-pointed Jubilee and came about at 11:52, while the Jubilee followed at 11:52. Both crafts were carrying club topsails and No. 2 jib topsails. On the next tack Jubilee came about half a minute later, but was steadily losing ground. On next tack both came about together, a long tow of barges forcing them inshore. Again they tacked together and for the next reach Defender cleared the red buoy off Point Judith while Jubilee was obliged to make an additional tack. At the first turn Defender rounded at 12:39:40, Jubilee 12:47:16, Emerald 12:51:07, Marguerite 12:57:30.

The second leg was but a long reach, as was the third and last. The second stake was turned as follows:

Defender 1:17:30, Jubilee 1:26:30, Emerald 1:31:25, Marguerite 1:37:00.

As Defender was about two-thirds over the third leg the steps blew out of the club topsail, letting it clear of the yard and allowing the wind, which had freshened from a very mild breeze at the start to a good strong squall-easter at the finish, to spill itself out and so somewhat reducing Defender's time, but a beat of 9 minutes over a twenty-one mile course is sufficiently decisive for even Jubilee to bow under.

The Favorite Won.

Concord, N. H., Aug. 8.—There were two exciting races at the driving park this afternoon. The favorite won in the 2:50 class, although Sam Viking trotted the fastest heat of the race. But he proved a quiver. In the 2:25 class Greenhorn in the second heat trotted the fastest mile of the meeting, 2:19:4, but Sarah Jane proved too fast for him in the end and took first money.

Enthusiasm Not Lacking.

Worcester, Mass., Aug. 8.—The tenth annual midsummer meet of the Massachusetts division L. A. W. opened at Lake Quinsigamond to-day. The headquarters were opened at Lakewood inn by Chief Consul Sterling Elliott, who with seven of the division officers is on the ground. The feature of the day was the arrival of the touring party from Boston under the lead of Captain J. C. Kerrison and although the party was smaller in numbers than was anticipated it was not lacking in enthusiasm. The meet will really open to-morrow when hundreds of wheelmen from all over the state are expected. The camp is finely situated on the border of the lake and there are a number of large tents and several smaller ones which afford camping accommodations for the cyclists. To-morrow's program includes a number of aquatic events at the lake and bicycle races in the afternoon at the Oval for which a number of entries have been received.

More Women Voters.

The following women were made voters by Town Clerk Brethauer yesterday: Frances E. Matthews, 255 Church street; Mary R. S. Gilbert, 57 Pearl street; Eliza Turner, 266 Blatchley avenue; Marietta J. Elkins, 291 Greenwich avenue; Mary A. Parmelee, 118 Lambert street; Marinda J. Bristol, 112 Lambert street; Louisa J. Countryman, 129 Lambert street; Mary E. Lego, 59 Kimberly avenue; Henrietta Bertland, 209 Davenport avenue; Bessie S. Fowler, 306 Greenwich avenue; Sarah A. Harris, 236 Washington street and Evaline G. Chappell, 33 Lines street.

Butcher's Re-hearsal.

The several committees who are in charge of the Butcher's Barbecue which is to be held on August 22, report a great deal of interest among all the butchers over the event and that it gives promise of being the largest ever held in this city.

STABBED BY AN ITALIAN.

An Assault Made on Two Women and Fatal Wounds Inflicted.

New York, Aug. 8.—In front of 325 East Eighty-eighth street to-day an Italian stabbed two women repeatedly with a stiletto, inflicting probably fatal wounds. The assassin is Filippo Giampata, forty-seven years old, a shoemaker. His victims are Kate Well, aged eighteen, and her sister Rosa, aged twenty-seven. The sisters were walking down Eighty-eighth street on their way home. Giampata was hiding in the vestibule of No. 323. In his hand he held a stiletto eight inches in length. As the two women reached the stoop of the house Giampata sprang from his hiding place with a shout and a curse, and seizing Kate by the throat plunged the stiletto to the hilt into her breast near the heart. The woman screamed and her sister shrieked for help. Withdrawing the weapon the assassin plunged it again and again into his victim, accompanying each stroke with a curse.

Having wreaked his wrath on Kate he turned to Rosa, who stood paralyzed with fear, and seizing her by the throat drove the stiletto into her body several times. He was plying the weapon on the woman when George Hohenstein seized his arm. Then he turned upon Hohenstein and struck at him with the stiletto, but without wounding him. Hohenstein loosened his hold and Giampata started away on a run. Before he reached the corner, however, he was arrested by Policemen Lidel, who called two other policemen and sent them to look for the girls. They found Kate lying on the sidewalk and Rosa bending over her. An ambulance was called and both girls taken to a hospital. There it was stated that Kate, who had seven stab wounds, one near the heart and the others in the arm, back and breast, could not survive.

Rosa, who had received nine wounds the most serious being one in the back, had a slight chance of recovery.

Two years ago Kate Well fell in love with Giampata, although he had a wife living. Giampata betrayed her and the intimacy was maintained until last May, when they quarrelled and separated. Giampata kept the baby which was the result of their intimacy, vainly hoping to force her to return to him. He still loved her and pursued her with his attentions, following her on the street and loitering about her home until last month, when she had him arrested. He was discharged on his promise not to annoy the young woman any more. He still persisted in annoying her, however, and yesterday he again caused his arrest.

This forenoon Magistrate Mott held Giampata in $500 bail to keep the peace and paroled him in the custody of Lawyer Quilman until this forenoon to procure bail. There was nothing in Giampata's manner to indicate that he meditated the deed which he committed less than an hour later.

SUNDAY SCHOOL AT CAMP.

Delightful Weather and a Large Attendance.

Plainville Camp Ground, Aug. 8.—The day could not have been better for Sunday school day, and a large throng was present.

The program to-day was under the auspices of the Connecticut Sunday School association, and President Cullen B. Foote presided, calling the assembly to order at 10:30.

The devotion services were led by W. G. Manchester of Plainville.

"A Town Meeting in Burton," an illustrative exercise, followed and proved highly successful.

Miss Carrie L. Hall of Hockanum rendered an appropriate literary selection, and she was followed by Rev. W. J. White of Waterbury, who gave an address on "The promotion of the temperance cause in and through the Sunday School."

At 2 o'clock this afternoon, when the afternoon's session was called to order, S. M. McAnally of Windsor Locks led the devotion services. Rev. C. H. Buck, D. D., of Bristol, then gave an address to the children.

At 3 o'clock Mrs. J. A. Cutting of New Haven read a paper on "The Sunday school as a factor for the betterment of the community." It was an excellent article and well presented.

The assembly was then again favored by recitations by Miss Carrie L. L. Hall, who was encored.

Prof. D. N. Camp of New Britain opened the discussion, "To what extent may public school methods be applied in the Sunday school?" Many persons took part in the discussion, and it was late when the debate was concluded.

To-night there was an address by W. H. Hall, state secretary and missionary, his subject being, "Some glimpses of Sunday school missionary work in Connecticut." There were over seventy stereopticon views used in illustrating the address.

Held Under Heavy Bonds.

Boston, Aug. 8.—John Reilly, aged sixty-eight, was held in $15,000 for the United States grand jury to-day on a charge of falsely swearing in order to obtain an increase of pension. Last July Reilly presented three affidavits purporting to be signed by Edward O. Donald, John R. Gilchrist and Charles K. Conn, testifying to his disability from rheumatism, traceable to exposure during the war. Suspicion was aroused and a pension examiner visited Reilly, who made affidavit that Conn and Gilchrist had since died, but that he saw O'Donald last November. As a matter of fact O'Donald has been dead three years and the others are alive and well.

UNION AVENUE EXTENSION

AGAIN CONSIDERED BY MEMBERS OF BOARD OF COMPENSATION.

Laurel Street Extension Opposed—Committee on Claims Couldn't Muster a Quorum—City Financiers Approved Weekly Payrolls—Other Business Transacted.

The old, old question of the proposed extension of Union avenue, between Water and Spring streets, again engrossed the attention of the members of the board of compensation last evening. The three members of the board, City Attorney Charles B. Matthewman, A. Maxey Hiller and Charles T. Coyle, were present, as were also a number of property owners along the line of the proposed extension.

No one appeared in favor of the extension, but on the other hand all were strenuously opposed to it. Captain John J. Kennedy appeared in the interests of one of the property owners and claimed that the damages awarded by the previous board of compensation were considerably less than the value of the land. The board had awarded damages of $478.00 and yet Captain Kennedy said that the owner of the property had refused an offer of $6,000 for the lot. "Why," said he, "the suits brought against her for breach of contract, caused by the action of the city in compelling her to stop erecting a building on the lot after the contracts had been awarded, and the work commenced, have cost her more than you have given her in damages and you have practically taken the whole lot from her. In addition she has been compelled to be without the use of the money for about a year and a half now and certainly she is entitled to some compensation for that."

The other property owners or the majority of them were represented by Attorney James T. Moran and each one was given an opportunity to express his or her objections to the proposed extension. All were along the same line as expressed at the previous hearing. In executive session the board decided to take no action on the matter until a meeting to be held in the near future.

The proposed extension of Laurel street, from Mill river to James street, was also considered and strenuously opposed by Edgar E. Durant, secretary and treasurer of the G. F. Warner Manufacturing company, who claimed that the proposed extension would damage the property of the company to the extent of several thousand dollars. The members of the board voted to continue the subject without taking any action on it, in order to give Mr. Durant opportunity to submit to the board a detailed statement of the estimated damages to his company.

COMMITTEE ON CLAIMS.

This committee was unable to muster a quorum last evening and consequently no action was taken on the numerous petitions. Alderman Skiff and Councilman Gompertz were the only members of the committee present. Corporation Counsel Ely was also present and about a dozen of the petitioners. After waiting for over half an hour for a quorum the two faithful members of the committee decided to adjourn until September 15.

WEEKLY PAYROLLS APPROVED.

At the weekly meeting of the board of finance yesterday afternoon the weekly payrolls of the several departments of the city government were approved as follows: Public works, $2,037.77; fire, $1,708.65; police, $3,315.65; health, $114, and sewers, $297.

CLINTONVILLE.

Aug. 8.—Owing to a misunderstanding due to the thunder shower, Mr. S. P. Thrasher was not present at the Sunday evening service. His place was filled by Mr. O. A. Brainerd, who led a profitable meeting of the subject of "God's Guidance." Many took part, among them G. S. Vibbert, Mr. E. Palmer and C. B. Foote.

Next Sunday evening the meeting will be in charge of the ladies, led by Mrs. C. H. Brainerd.

Mrs. Kittie and daughter of Springfield, Mass., are visiting Miss Harriet Blackless.

Our station seems to be a distributing point for coal, several cars having been unloaded here recently.

EXCURSION AND PICNIC.

The Red Cross society, No. 162, Sons of St. George, took about 160 on a picnic to Light house point yesterday.

A New Britain contingent of about 200 people were numbered among the Continental's passengers yesterday on its regular excursion trip.

The John H. Starn's passengers to-day on its trip to Glen Island included large delegations from the Foresters society, German Lutherans and the Independent Cornet band—about 600 in all.

The Sunday school of the First Presbyterian church of this city held its annual picnic at Lake Saltonstad yesterday. The party numbering about 150 left the green in two cars at 9 o'clock in the morning.

EMPHATICALLY DENIED.

The Story Published in the Evening Papers Relative to the Recent Burglary Is Incorrect.

The story in the evening papers last evening to the effect that Mr. William B. Swift of the "Journal & Courier" saw burglars going in or coming out of Kaute Brothers' saloon, 505 State street, early Thursday morning is emphatically denied by him. What he did see was two fellows acting in a suspicious manner, but says he could not swear in any court that these were the guilty parties, nor did he at the time imagine any burglary was committed. It was subsequent events which leads him to suppose that the fellows he saw were the ones. He does not understand how such a story could have gone forth from the police office as Captain Wrinn was made acquainted with the fact yesterday.

BANNER LODGE IN NEW QUARTERS.

A "Housewarming" Last Evening—The List of Officers.

Banner lodge No. 1, Degree of Honor, A. O. U. W., last evening held a social gathering in honor of taking possession of their new lodge rooms in the "Courier" building. The evening was spent in a social way, and refreshments were served, consisting of lemonade and cake. The lodge has formerly met in Golden Rule hall and the officers are as follows:

Past chief of honor—Mrs. Kate Bristol.

Chief of honor—Mrs. Nellie Tyler.

Lady of honor—Mrs. Mary A. Tuttle.

Chief of ceremonies—Mrs. Nellie Hunn.

Usher—Mrs. Sarah Wade.

Recorder—Miss Hattie Butler.

Receivers—Mr. W. Whitaker.

Financier—Mrs. Sarah Wadhams.

Pinelist—Miss Florence Butler.

Inside watchman—Mrs. Storey.

Outside watchman—Mr. William Hopson.

ARMORY NOTES.

A Detachment of the Blues to March to Camp Coffin.

The adjutant general has given permission to the Blues for ten of their number to march to Camp Coffin. This innovation was the idea of Sergeant J. H. Newbold of the company.

First Lieutenant Smith will have command, aided by First Sergeant Newbold.

The squad will be under heavy marching orders, carrying rifles, bayonets, side arms, knapsacks, blankets, and overcoats and two days' rations, making the total weight of about fifty pounds.

They will muster for roll call at 2 o'clock to-morrow at the armory, and will report to their captain at 10:30 Monday morning at Camp Coffin.

Strict military discipline will be maintained on the march, and all the work of a division under marching orders will be carried out. Nothing will be left out from the time of the beginning of the march until camp is reached. The number of halts, the description of places where rendezvous was made, the time between halts, etc., will be kept a strict account of. The topography of the country will receive attention.

The men will sleep out of doors in their blankets and overcoats, and will rough it generally.

The city battalion of the Second regiment will leave New Haven for camp at 7:25 Monday morning. Captain J. M. Thompson, U. S. A., has been detailed as guard inspector.

THE WYANDOTTE COMING.

There was a large attendance of the naval militia at their meeting last evening. Lieutenant Raynolds presiding. The catering for the coming encampment was talked over, and it was decided to leave the matter to the officers. The new home of the militia, the Wyandotte, will start from the Norfolk navy yard this week, and is expected to be here by the end of next week.

The entire command will start from here on Monday morning at 8 o'clock, August 19, in the four cutters loaned them by the New York naval militia. The command now numbers eighty-four men, and it is expected that the entire command will go to camp.

The new Hotchkiss guns will be taken on the cutters also. Despite the fact that the secretary of the navy cannot furnish them a boat for a cruise it is thought that the week at camp will be of great benefit to the command.

LAID AT REST.

Funeral of Mrs. Fitzpatrick.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Jennie E. Fitzpatrick was held from the residence of her father, Robert McNulty, on Hamilton street, yesterday morning, and later at St. Patrick's church. Rev. Father Slocum of South Norwalk solemnized a requiem high mass, and in his remarks spoke most feelingly of the excellent life and Christian character of the deceased, her love for the church and her patience and resignation. The Rev. Father Slocum was a former and much beloved pastor of St. Patrick's church, where the deceased attended. The floral offerings were very beautiful. The designs and special pieces were very fine, and there were many other floral tributes. The pallbearers were ex-City Attorney T. J. Fox, Colonel John G. Healy, Commissioner James E. McGann, Captain Edward T. Kennedy, Attorney J. J. Buchanan and Captain William Gleason. Theodore Keller was the funeral director. The burial was in St. Bernard cemetery in the family lot.

ROBERT J. AGAIN DEFEATED

JOE PATCHEN PROVES TO BE MORE THAN A MATCH FOR HIM.

As a result of the Race Hamlin's Little Champion Will Be Retired From the Track Until He Gets Back to His Usual Form—It Was a Good Race, Though.
